GREAT FESTIVAL STARTS FRIDAY IN ANTIOCH

First Annual Affair Promises to Make History for the City

"Lift up your head and shout, Here's what it's all about—There's going to be a great day!" Tomorrow is the great day; the Antioch festival will be on in all its splendor, and it's not just another carnival; it's the first annual Antioch Lions club festival and the Lions have put their powerful shoulders together in the united effort to insure a festival that's worthy of them, and presto, they did it!

Antioch presents a brave front with the prettiest decorations the city has ever flaunted. The festival ground, just west of Main street on Orchard, is brilliantly lighted and will be one gay, laughing midway with all the games and amusements that children and grown-ups on a holiday like to revel in. The great ox has been led to the slaughter and tomorrow the barbecue fires will roast him to a nice brown right on the festival grounds so that on Saturday afternoon the hungry may be fed.

Contest Entries Will Soon Close The beauty parade contest and the shorts parade contest are two of the most interesting events of the festival. The beauty contestants will parade Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and the shorts contestants at the same hour Sunday afternoon. Entries are open until 6 p. m. Friday.

Late this afternoon more than forty girls had registered for the beauty revue. The ages are practically unlimited and the assured young charms of eighteen summers and thereabout are going to find themselves up against the proposition of defeating some very cute little tots of 7 and 9.

There will be a lot of fun at the girl's and firemen's water fights which will be staged Friday evening. If the temperature plays around the level of the first part of the week this should be one of the most intriguing features of the festival. The firemen taking part will hail from Antioch, Grass Lake and Fox Lake and the firemen's wives will be recruited from Antioch, Round Lake and Grayslake. This fast and furious contest will be staged Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Festival Gets Widespread Publicity Newspaper cameramen from Waukegan and Chicago visited Antioch yesterday, taking pictures of groups of young ladies who will take part in the beauty parade and shorts parade, the winners of which will be rewarded with beautiful gold loving cups.

The Grand Finale of the festival will be a gorgeous fireworks display on Sunday evening. Antioch and the Lions club are making the entire three day occasion one of widespread hospitality and the public is invited to be the guest of the city.

CUBA TWP. DIVIDED INTO 3 PRECINCTS

Division Follows Decision of County Supervisors; Formerly 1 Precinct

Cuba township will acquire two new precinct committeemen this month. Present indications are that Joe Welch will be the Republican and Leo LaPointe the Democrat to get the appointments. It is expected that they will be recommended by the former township committeemen and appointed by the County Central committee.

Formerly Cuba has been only one precinct with a single committeeman from each party. Recently the board of supervisors decreed that Cuba should be divided because the township was greatly in excess of the 800 voters supposed to be in any one precinct.

Card Party at Channel Lake Next Thursday

There will be a card party on the Channel Lake school grounds next Thursday afternoon, August 18. The play will start at 2 o'clock and there will be bunco tables, in addition to the card tables, with door prizes for each table. The Channel Lake Community club sponsors the party and the money will be used for the Channel Lake school. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon. There will be a small attendance charge.

The Marianne Shop will put on a Style Show next Monday afternoon at St. Peter's Hall.

Democratic Will Picnic in North Chicago

The Democrats are going to have a picnic at Foss Park, North Chicago. All the state and county candidates will be there, and there will be a few speeches, though not enough, the promoters declare, to tire any of them who come just for a good time. There is a popularity contest on for the girls, the winners of which will be announced that day. The contestants are Dorothy Stanton, Ingleside; Vivian Pfannestill, Mundelein; Agnes Anderson, North Chicago; Dorothy Sonterville, Highland Park; Marion Natelson, Waukegan; Evelyn Sken, Zion and Florence Weston, Zion.

The date of the picnic is August 21, and the fun will begin at 12 noon and last till there isn't any more.

200 FILE FOR CITIZENSHIP IN LAKE COUNTY

Examination Will Be Held in Waukegan Oct. 6

Foreigners in Lake County who wish to become naturalized Americans will have their hearing in the Waukegan courthouse October 6. Two hundred men and women of many different Nationalities will aspire to citizenship that day, according to the report of the circuit clerk.

In McHenry County the class to be examined for citizenship comprises twenty and the day is Sept. 26.

KENOSHA COUNTY FAIR COMING

Will Be Bigger and More Spectacular than Fairs of Previous Years

Kenosha Countians and their neighbors by the thousands will begin gathering at Wilmet next Wednesday for the Kenosha County Fair will open with a big parade at ten o'clock; from then on the fair is under way, the most colorful and complete as to exhibits, contests and amusements that Kenosha County has ever had.

The parade will turn at Village Park and it will be enlivened by music from the school band, the Kiltie band and the Salvation army band and circus. Judging of entries will go on all day. WLS radio headlines will appear both afternoon and evening. On Thursday they will make several appearances, and there will be tournaments and horse shoe pitching contests. At 8 p. m. comes the much talked of horse show.

The old-fashioned horse-pulling contest is one of Friday's features. There is also the style show and the Dairy Queen contest, involving the choosing of the most popular girl, and the day will close with the evening horse show.

Tomorrow Night Wrestling Card Looks Good Enough

Friedrick Von Schacht, 6 foot 6 inch German giant who outroughed King Kong and punished the famous bearded Abyssinian wild-man into submission last week, will meet Freddy "Legs" Grumier, lanky Iowa scissor expert, in one of the main events of the weekly wrestling card to be staged in Peg's Grayslake Arena Friday night.

It was first expected that the winner would meet Jim McMillen, but McMillen is one of the promoters of the Antioch festival which begins Friday and will be unable to be at the arena this week.

The other main event on this twin feature is between Ruffy Silverstein and Hans Schnable, toughest of the famous five Schnable brothers.

In the semi-windup Bobby Brans returns once again to face Geo. Mansor, burly Arabian giant.

The preliminary match pits El Sayre, Waukegan football and wrestling star, against Otto Schnable. Sayre is undefeated as a pro and will get a real test from the German heavyweight star.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES CARD PARTY

The Grayslake unit of the East Fox Lake Cemetery association will sponsor a dessert luncheon and card party at St. Gilbert's hall, Grayslake, Tuesday, August 16th, beginning at 1:30 D. S. T. Bridge, five hundred, pinocle and bunco will be played. You are cordially invited. Tickets 35c.

NEW MOTOR LAWS HAVE SHARP TEETH

Inefficient and Irresponsible Motorists Will Be Weeded Out

Springfield, Ill., August 5—Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes today announced that while the deadline for securing a Driver's License is May 1, 1939, the requirements of the Financial Responsibility act are in effect now.

Under the regulations of the Financial Responsibility law any driver involved in an accident when final judgment is given against him in a court of competent jurisdiction must supply the Secretary of State with proof of his ability to pay the judgment. In the event that the driver fails to supply such proof his registration card and license plates must be surrendered to the Secretary of State until such time that the driver is able to give proof of financial responsibility.

Proof of Financial Responsibility May Be Given

By filing with the Secretary of State written certificate of any insurance carrier authorized to do business in this state, certifying that it has furnished to the operator a motor vehicle liability policy, or by filing a surety bond, or by a bond signed by two individual sureties each owning real estate having an equity therein in the amount of such bond, or by delivering to the Secretary of State a receipt of the State Treasurer showing the deposit with said State Treasurer of money in amount, or securities endorsed in blank by the owner thereof and of a market value of the total amount as would be required if a motor vehicle liability policy were furnished.

Satisfaction of claim under the Financial Responsibility Act is made in the following ways:

$5,000 credited upon a judgment rendered in excess of that amount for bodily injury or death to one person; $10,000 credited upon a judgment rendered in excess of that amount for bodily injury or death to two people; $1,000 damages to property.

Proof of financial responsibility is required for those persons who have had their driver's license revoked, and for those who have had judgments rendered against them in automobile accident cases and have not settled such judgment or made arrangement for settlement within thirty days after they have become final.

Two Men and a Boy Drown In Lakes

Two men and a boy lost their lives while swimming in the lakes Sunday. The boy, five-year-old James Gast of Elmwood Park, wandered away from his parents at Round Lake and apparently walked into the water and was drowned. His body was found floating by a swimmer, who took him to shore but he was not revived, although inhalator squads worked over him for hours.

On Slocum Lake twenty-five year old Joseph Haborj dove into the water for a swim and did not come up. A companion, Henry Kumm, of Chicago, dived after him, and he, too, failed to come up. Another companion of the boys then called for help, but the bodies were not found, although the lake was dragged for several hours.

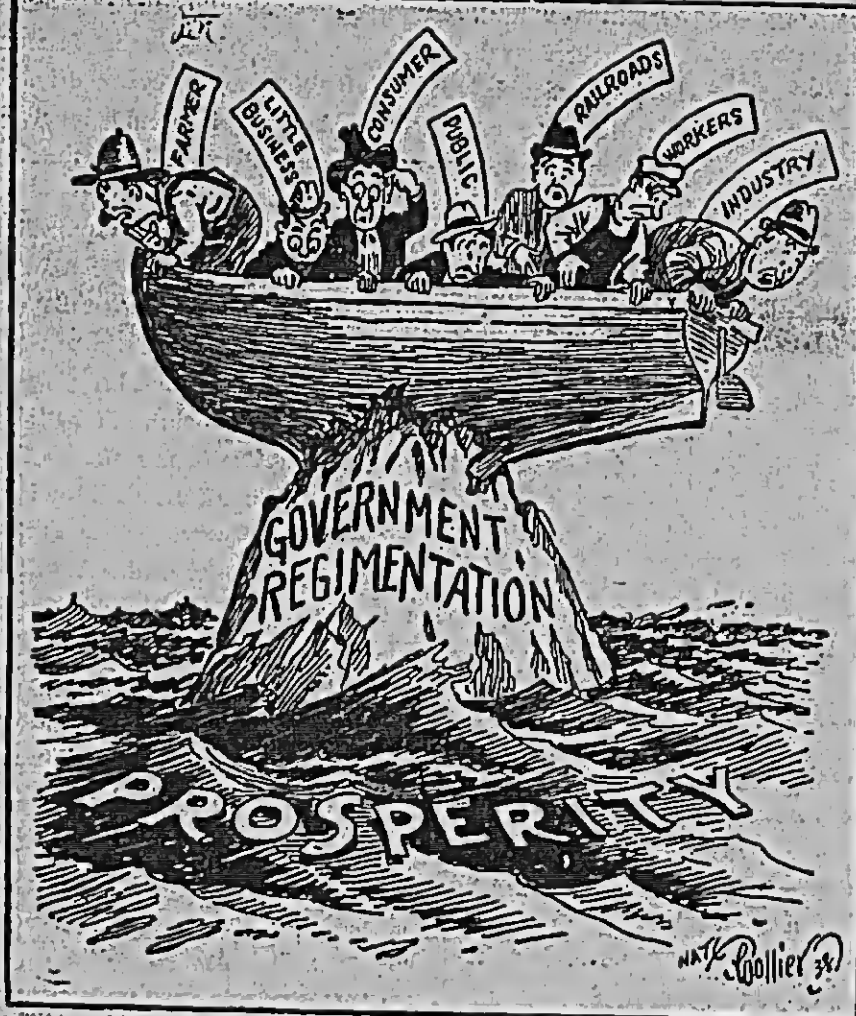

McHenry County Gets Poorer, Then Gets Richer

Over in McHenry County things happen with surprising consistency. For one thing the county is faced with the need of a bond issue to raise some $55,000 to repair storm and flood damages to county roads and bridges, and for another thing, the county has just discovered itself the unwitting possessor of a 40-acre tract of land located on the lower Illinois side of Twin Lakes, worth possible $40,000.

Somebody dug up the old records of a government deed to the tract, which was executed in 1850, giving the title to the land to McHenry County. The record was unearthed through the attempt of a Twin Lakes property owner to buy the land, which adjoined his. At the time the deed was made the acreage was nothing but a swamp but it is said to be valuable now for fishing and hunting.

Mrs. B. R. Burke entertained a number of friends at a one o'clock luncheon and bridge party, at her home on Tiffany road Thursday afternoon.

ANTIOCH FAIR COMES NEXT

Premium Money Exceeds Previous Years

The fourteenth Annual, Antioch country fair and 4-H Club Round-up with a combined premium list of about $5,000 is the next affair of importance. The fair will open on the 25th of August and will run through the 26th and 27th. The premium list exceeds that of previous years by $1,500 and much attention is being given to the exhibits and amusement features.

The fair will be located on the Antioch Township high school grounds, at the intersection of Routes 54 and 173. The officers are D. H. Minto, president; Emmet W. King, vice president; Bert Edwards, Treasurer; Mrs. R. D. McGuire, secretary, and H. A. Tillotson, Charles Paddock and E. E. Elsbury, directors. The entries close Thursday, August 26.

The Lake County Chorus, will be heard at 8 p. m. on Saturday, as an amusement feature of the closing day. The Russell Christine Company, popular entertainers, will make one appearance on Thursday and frequent appearances on the two following days, with an exceptionally funny clown in tow.

The fair in every respect will be bigger and more interesting than in previous years. More money has been spent in preparation and it is expected that the attendance will break all records.

It is the first time in the history of the Antioch Country fair that a woman has served as secretary. Mrs. R. D. McGuire is handling the situation with admirable efficiency. She is the wife of Ralph McGuire, landscape gardener of Mill Creek Gardens, a dealer in evergreens and perennials.

Eastern Star Picnics On Lake Catherine

The Boulevard Chapter of the Eastern Star of Chicago held a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Drumm of Lake Catherine last Sunday. There were fifty guests present and the amusements of the day were boating, croquet, cards, canoeing and swimming. A picnic lunch was one of the most pleasant features of the day. The affair will probably be repeated next summer.

Garden Club Ready for Flower Show at Fox Lake Auditorium

The Fox Lake Garden club will hold their annual flower show in the auditorium of the Fox Lake grade school. The general chairman of the various committees is on the job, and the date is August 18 and 19.

Miss Eva Palmer will have charge of the flower arrangements; Mrs. Myrtle Smith will head the publicity and registration; Mrs. Bess Valenta will be chairman of hostesses, and the committee on specimens, Mrs. Wilson Jarnis on potted plants, Mrs. Rose Brien on commercial, Mrs. Carlotta Flanders on shadow boxes and Mesdames May and Buy Bolton will head other committees.

Beside awards for best classification exhibits there will be silver cup awards for the best bridge luncheon table setting, best arrangement of cut flowers in pottery container and the best shadow box.

SUPERVISORS VOTE FUNDS FOR SLOT MACHINE QUIZ

Investigator Starts Work Wednesday; Will Spend $7,500

The finance and judiciary committees of the Lake County Board of Supervisors Tuesday submitted to the board a resolution providing Special State's Attorney C. E. Jack with a fund to be used in the investigation of slot machine operation in Lake County. The resolution makes the sum of $7,000 available for the purpose designated and is to be used over the duration of the fiscal year.

The resolution received the endorsement of the board and on Wednesday the special prosecutor started his work. The names of his investigators will not be revealed and it was agreed by the board of supervisors that he had a right to hire whom he pleases.

The appropriation was based on the amount which Prosecutor Jack, appointed by Judge Dady of the Circuit court, thought necessary to carrying out the investigation. Under the terms of the resolution the investigators will become employees of the county, to receive their pay monthly.

Attorney Jack was appointed by the court when a reform group, raiding the taverns and other small businesses places throughout the county, demanded that the slot machine racket be subjected to a thorough investigation. The movement had every evidence of originating with civic, church and temperance organizations, but last week one minister, Rev. Davis, of Waukegan, withdrew from the group pushing the reform, declaring that he had decided it was inspired by politics. Later, however, he signed a petition requiring that Mr. Jack be given the fund for investigation.

More than one thousand names appeared on the petition.

OLD AGE BENEFITS LAW CHANGED

Property Owners Can No Longer Secure Assistance

New rules made by the Department of Public Welfare at Springfield are providing a decidedly different set-up for those who would qualify for old age benefits under the Illinois pension law, according to information received today.

The new rule effective now eliminates any person 65 years or older from receiving the old age pension benefits if this person has a valuation of $2,500 or more in property. This means that property assessed at $833.33 which constitutes a $2,500 true valuation, eliminates a person from eligibility for an old age pension.

Prior to this new regulation people who owned a small home or other property could give a lien to the state in exchange for an old age pension grant. The state could cash in on this lien after the death of the person receiving the old age assistance. This part of the law evidently has been changed.

Wins Promotion In Civil Service

Nason E. Sibley, who five months ago began work under civil service as construction engineer at Fort Sheridan, has been given a promotion. Next Monday he will assume the position of superintendent of construction, and will have under his charge the erection of the 23 new buildings planned for the fort. Over a thousand workers, including WPA and PWA, and civil service employees are engaged in the building program which will cost over $2,000,000. The cost is to be covered by appropriations from the federal government.

Stanzack Bros. Will Play Antioch Aces

The Stanzack Bros. team from North Chicago will meet the Antioch Aces on the local high school diamond Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The Aces defeated the Harbor Inn team 5 to 3 last Sunday. The winners scored one less hit than the losers, but the Harbor lads made several errors.

Miss Mary Tiffany left Monday morning for a few weeks stay at Keweenaw Peninsula, Michigan.

Lions Club Proves Its Worth

The Antioch Lions Club is proving itself one civic organization that is well deserving of the people's support and gratitude. The club has been in existence one year and since its organization has been tirelessly at work promoting the welfare of Antioch and the Lake Region.

The latest undertaking of the club is the Antioch Festival which begins tomorrow. The staging of this festival required a tremendous output of energy and money on the part of those who would make it a success. Every member of the club has been tireless in his efforts to put the festival over in great style. It should bring hundreds of outsiders into Antioch for the three days of its duration, stimulate business and effectively advertise the beautiful Metropolis of the Lake Region.

The ultimate purpose of the festival is as praiseworthy as it is ambitious. It is the purpose of the club to take the money derived from the festival and turn Antioch into a mecca for winter sports enthusiasts.

Vision, if you can, an Antioch with a towering ski jump, an ice skating rink surpassed by none in the larger cities, ice boating facilities, in fact every thrilling winter sport that is destined to draw sportsmen and sportswomen from the more crowded centers and the less favored small cities! There you will have an Antioch as popular in the winter months as in the summer when the cooling lake breezes are a lure to sweltering humanity in the city.

Two New Laws to Protect Public

Two of the most important bits of legislation passed in recent years, the driver's license and the financial responsibility law, are claiming a great deal of public interest. There is no relation between the two laws except that each fills a long felt need and each strengthens the effectiveness of the other.

For years there has been a crying need of the driver's license law, destined to become more effective as time passes. Under the provisions of this law drivers who become involved in accidents that indicate their irresponsibility as drivers, will be required to take an examination and only upon establishing their fitness to drive will they be able to retain their license. It would be impracticable to immediately subject every driver in the State to such a test, because it would involve a great and unnecessary expense. Given a little time and rope, the unfit drivers will hang themselves.

Under the provisions of the financial responsibility law, it is no longer feasible for a tin-pan driver to wreck a new car and airily dismiss the matter. Either he must put up or shut up in the garage the old tin-pan with which he has been menacing the public. Motoring will be safer at least from a financial standpoint. If he knows he faces possible loss of a driver's license the motorist is going to strain a few points to afford liability insurance or some other form of surety to pay in case he happens to be at fault in an accident which results in injury or loss of life to another. It will take time to bring either of these laws to the highest point of efficiency, because as with the driver's license law, the financial responsibility law shows its teeth first after a driver has been involved in an accident. If he is unable to post proof of his financial responsibility he is simply required to hand in his driver's license.

Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. Burroughs.

Masses at the Holy Name church on Sunday will be at 6-8-10 and 11. On the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Monday the masses will be at 6 a. m. and 8 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Frank attended a birthday party Saturday night in honor of Fred Volbrecht's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Edward Mutz has secured donations of trophies from Burlington merchants and R. L. Hegeman, to be awarded besides ribbons for the four classes in the children's horse show to be held Friday afternoon, Aug. 19.

A dinner will be served at the Lutheran parish hall at noon on Sunday, in connection with the Mission Festival — until all are served. The public is invited.

Grace and Erminie Carey and Grant Tyler were in Oak Park Wednesday and attended funeral services for T. G. Rhodes.

Contributions for the fair dinners will be gratefully received by members of the Wilmot Mothers club.

Mrs. William Wertz entertained at three tables of bridge at her home Wednesday evening. A luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Winn Peterson and family are spending the week at the Kierred cottage at Lake Geneva.

TWO-PURPOSE GOWN FINDS MUCH FAVOR

By CHERIE NICHOLAS
The tendency these days is to have a foundation dress with endless accessory ensembles in reserve so as to change the character of the costume to tune to occasion. The newest entrant into the interchangeable costume realm is the dress of black or navy crepe which is sold with a full length detachable front panel of pleated crepe in white or some contrasting color. For the practical hours of the day the dress is worn without the panel and you can run about town looking trim and tailored. Or in the office you will appear "neat as a pin" dressed appropriately for business hours.

To keep the bridge date or accept an informal dinner engagement, you can don the white or colorful pleated panel in a jiffy. It fastens up over the shoulders and there are ribbon straps and bows to adjust to make it look like an integral part of the dress, for it extends from neck to hem.

Take Life Easy In the Summer Months

DON'T work yourself to a frazzle this summer. Plan your housekeeping so that the heat doesn't get you down. This can be done with a little careful management, including the use of energy-savers.

If you get full service from only the household washer and ironer, for example, it goes for toward making house-keeping a pleasure and never a bore. With them the daily cleanliness problem is so simply and pleasantly solved that it becomes easy to welcome one's husband at the door cool and fresh and aerobically conscious that dinner is waiting to be served—the final touch of a day's smoothly running home management.

Look for corners that can be cut

Simplifying one's work as much as possible in these ways enables you to spend the time you have in doing the thing you like to do for fun, whether it is gardening, swimming, motoring, improving your golf score or just resting an hour or two for a change.

FARM TOPICS

FIND GRASS TONIC FOR ANIMAL LIFE

Nature's Gift Ranks With Sunshine, Air, Water.

By G. T. Klein, Extension Poultry Specialist, Massachusetts State College, VNU Service.

Poultrymen are going back to nature as a result of recent findings in scientific laboratories. We have found that short tender grass is one of nature's greatest gifts to animal life, ranking in importance with sunshine, air and water.

Chickens and turkeys which receive a liberal quantity of finely-cut tender grass every day throughout the growing period, in addition to a well-balanced grain ration, appear to develop a resistance to certain diseases and parasites. They usually grow more rapidly and consume less grain than do birds reared on a grass-free diet.

The cultivated grasses, such as oats, barley, Sudan, wheat, and rye, when grown on fertile soil, are high in protein, contain about 15 minerals, and all the known vitamins except D. Use of oat plants as much as possible during the year is recommended since these plants are palatable, easily grown and yield a high tonnage.

Where time does not permit cutting and feeding the grass daily, the next best practice is to have the grass available for the birds to range in during the growing period. A combination of the two systems gives excellent results. The main point is to feed the grass when it is young and tender.

The growing of green feeds for poultry seems to offer a way of reducing growing costs and building healthy, vigorous bodies capable of resisting disease and giving greater performance. Because of the saving in grain feeding, good pasture is now considered to be the most valuable feed crop grown on the poultry farm.

KNOW THYSELF

by Dr. George D. Greer

DO ALL THINGS COME TO HIM WHO WAITS?

THIS is an anesthetic for the human mind and spirit. It is the excuse of the lazy. Waiting has its value only when it has been preceded by hard work and the application of the best available wisdom to the appeal when we contemplate the lives of those who have done things in the world. We are forced to admit that for the most part the best things come to those who go out after them. At any rate the world is glad that Pasteur, Paderewski, Galileo, Newton and others who made great contributions to human life and progress were workers instead of waiters.

VicinityVacationers Will Return to Antioch Next Week

Sonny and Doris Klass are expected home next week from their respective vacations. Sonny has been away three weeks, visiting friends at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Doris has been in the Camp Fire girls' camp, located 25 miles from Cedar Rapids. Doris has been the recipient of camp honors twice during her stay there. On one occasion she was honored, together with her companions in her tent, for the neatest housekeeping of the week, and later she won swimming honors from the waterfront director. Her birthday occurred after she arrived at camp and the occasion was observed by camp directors with a large birthday cake.

ENGAGEMENT
ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Meyer of Grass Lake announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Louise, to Frank J. Wiczorek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wiczorek, 1023 Florence avenue, Evanston, Illinois. The wedding date is set for August of 1939, on the bride-elect's birthday.

Dolly Ries Has 7th Birthday.

Little Dolly Ries was the honoree at a birthday party recently on the occasion of her seventh birthday. It was also Dolly's seventh party, because each birthday has been marked with a party. She received many nice gifts from twenty-one friends present. Russell Stowe, Jack Walsh, Shirley Miller and June Peterson won prizes.

LEGION AUXILIARY HAS MEETING

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary gathered yesterday, Aug. 10, at Libertyville, for their district meeting. Present from Antioch were Ruth Ward, Ethel Zimmerman, Mary Chase, Agnes Hills, Alma Hadden, Erna Fowles, Sine Laursen and Myrtle Klass.

Rindfleischs' Leave for Oregon

Mrs. Carl Rindfleisch and her daughters, Irene and Flora, left this week for their home in Portland, Oregon, after visiting for two months with numerous friends and relatives in Antioch and Kenosha. Mrs. Rindfleisch is a former resident of Antioch. On their return trip they expect to make a ten-day stop in New Mexico.

Accidents Mar Week-end.

The usual series of traffic accidents interspersed the week-end in Lake County, and one Lake county driver, Joe Batura, 23, of Zion, was held in Milwaukee as the result of an auto crash in which Mrs. Batura was slightly injured and two Milwaukee women were killed.

Truman Webb, 43, of North Chicago, drove his truck into the rear of a car driven by Arnold McArdle, of Chicago, and although the impact of the crash is said to have sent McArdle's car fifty feet over the curb, neither driver was injured.

A Milwaukee motorist was charged with reckless driving and his companion held for disorderly conduct following an automobile collision at Skokie road and route 173.

Ladies Aid Meets

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will meet at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of August 17 at the home of Mrs. George Anderson of Cross Lake. It is the usual monthly social meeting.

CHEST CLINIC TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Miss White of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association has returned to her duties after a month's vacation. The usual chest clinic will be resumed Wednesday morning at St. Theresa hospital at 8:00 A. M. New patients desiring examination are requested to telephone the office for appointment—Majestic 1895.

Freeing the Slaves

The British set free the slaves in South Africa in 1834, but the decree was only partly effective, the Boers keeping their slaves and capturing more for several years afterward. American slaves were emancipated during the Civil war, 1862. While Brazil emancipated slaves in 1871, those who were infants at the time were required to remain in slavery until they were twenty-one.

Worked to Pay Passage

Steamship companies in the early days had systems whereby passengers in the lowest fare class could help pay for the trip by carrying wood for the boilers. When the boat stopped for fuel, these passengers would carry wood from storage places on the shore to the boiler rooms.

No Witches Burned in U. S. There seems not to be any authentic case of the burning of a witch in the United States. Many, however, were executed by hanging in the Seventeenth century in New England, as witchcraft was a capital crime.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Spirit" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 7.

The Golden Text was, "The fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth" (Ephesians 5:9).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me" (Psalms 139:1, 7-10).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality nor existence except the divine Mind and His ideas. The Scriptures also declare that God is Spirit. He fills all space, and it is impossible to conceive of such omnipresence and individuality except as Infinite Spirit or Mind. Hence all is Spirit and spiritual" (p. 331).

Woodchuck Equipped to Do Good Job of Gnawing

The short-tailed, rugged-bodied woodchuck is a rodent or gnawing mammal which has broad, chisel-like front teeth in both the upper and lower jaw, writes Walter J. Schoonmaker in a New York Zoological Society bulletin. When full grown it is usually more than 20 and less than 25 inches from the nose to the end of the tail bone and the vertebral in the tail are five to six inches long.

Generally, the back is grizzly gray varied with chestnut, black and yellow; the scantily haired belly and the legs are quite red or rufescent and the tail and feet are usually dark brown or nearly black. This typical color, however, is subject to a great deal of variation and may range from black to white. The melanistic color phase is quite common, but the albino individual with pink eyes is rare because the mother may kill and eat the striking and offcolor offspring soon after birth.

The woodchuck is a child of the sun. Seldom does it appear before sunrise and usually it retires before dusk, although on rare occasions it may be found abroad at night. It readily climbs trees and it swims with ease, although it is not as agile as its long-tailed cousin the squirrel, nor as aquatic as its more distant relative, the beaver. It is an accomplished digger, however, and finds a home and safety in the bosom of Mother Earth. Its burrow measures about seven inches in diameter and may be from three to twenty-four feet or more in length. Two entrances to the den are usual. One is prominent, with a mound of earth before it, while the second, the air hole or lookout, is often quite concealed and no loose earth is near it. The nest is located in a chamber in the burrow and is composed of dry grass.

Hand of Dead King-Saint, Stephen, on Exhibition

One of the world's few historically authentic holy relics is the miraculously preserved right hand of Hungary's king-saint, Stephen, who died 900 years ago. Each year on St. Stephen's day the holy right hand is paraded through the streets of Buda, the older half of the Magyar twin-city on the Danube, in a procession that is generally regarded as Europe's most gorgeous and impressive annual pageant event, according to a correspondent in the Philadelphia Inquirer.

King Stephen was canonized in 1083. His tomb was then opened and the saint's body in the great alabaster sarcophagus was found in a state of complete preservation in a fragrant pink liquid of mysterious origin that filled the coffin.

The Hungarian king, Ladislas, who was present, ordered the right hand of Stephen be put in a precious wrought container and a parchment bearing the inscription, "This is the Holy Right of Glorious King Stephen the Apostolic," placed in its grasp.

The relic is in the same state in which it was found. It is somewhat darker than in life, but the flesh and structure are intact, and it has neither turned to stone, as does anything petrified, nor shriveled as mummified bodies do. The fingers and thumb are slightly flexed. The hand rests on a red velvet cushion within a tabernacle of gold and glass. A gold band encircles the wrist, which extends for several inches above the hand.

Black and White

For all practical purposes white and black are colors, but technically they are not. White is a combination of all colors, and black, the absence of color. Colors are produced by the difference in the length of light waves. We see the longer waves as red, those a little shorter as orange, and so on. The shortest light waves visible appear to the eye as violet. A red object is one which absorbs all the light waves except the red ones; they are reflected back to the eye and produce the color called red. An orange-colored object is one which absorbs all the light waves except the orange ones; they are reflected back to the eye and produce the color called orange, and so on. White consists of light waves of all lengths—of all wave lengths mixed together. A white object is one which reflects all or nearly all the light waves, and a black object is one that absorbs all or nearly all the light waves.

The Game of Bridge

Under the name of "Britch," bridge was played in Constantinople in the seventies of the last century. From there it spread gradually to Cairo, the Riviera, London and New York. Everywhere it went it ousted its parent game, whist. The actual first game of bridge seems to have been played at the Villa Corneo, on the upper Bosphorus, in August, 1873. Its inventor, M. Serghini, a gentleman of Rumanian origin, was one of the four players on this historic occasion.

Seats Assigned Senators

Senators are assigned certain seats and desks. Seniority governs seating and changes are made from time to time. In the house of representatives no allotment is made and the members occupy any seat available. In both the house and senate political divisions are made. The Democrats occupy one side and the Republicans the other.

Rosicrucianism, System of Mystical Philosophy

Rosicrucianism, (ro-zi-kroo-shan-izm), is a system of mystical and metaphysical philosophy intended to guide the development of the inner consciousness. Popularly believed to have begun in Cassel, Germany, early in the Seventeenth century, notes a writer in the Indianapolis News, it has been revealed that the fraternity had existed long prior to what was only a revival in Germany. In 1607, Figulus, a mythical writer, referred in a pamphlet to the existence of the fraternity in Europe in 1410. An officer of the fraternity states that in 1413 the greatest revivals of actively occurred. Another officer mentions one Friesen or Friesau as national emperor of the fraternity in 1408; Cornelius Agrippa mentions the foundation of a branch in 1507, and that Brother Philolatheus was "invested with the power of imperator." In a letter from the French Doctor Landelf to Agrippa, he states that he knew the fraternity in 1509. Paracelsus records his admission into a rosicrucian lodge in Basle, in 1530. Heinrich Khunrath, German rosicrucian officer and author, published (1590) a book dealing with the secret principles, and an international congress of rosicrucians was held in England in 1604.

Many ancient rosicrucian documents preserved in a rare collection in Cologne bear evidence that the organization was old even in the Sixteenth century. One book in the collection, by Brother "Omnis Nocturnus" refers to a German rosicrucian lodge in 1115, while Arnold de Villanova, rosicrucian officer, speaks in his "Rosary" of the fraternity existing in 1230.

The name of the organization is derived from its original symbol, the cross with a single red rose in the center.

Where Guillotine Serves in Decapitating Poultry

Arched streets, medieval fountains, gates and towers, plus a location in a peninsula above the river Aare, with the Alps glistening in the distance, combine to make the Swiss capital into a picture town. Berne was founded by Duke Berthold V of Zähringen in 1191 A. D., and although it is government headquarters, meeting place of diplomats and a modern intellectual center, it guards its ancient traditions and landmarks with jealous pride, writes a correspondent in the New York World-Telegram.

Market days have retained their old-time importance and prove an opportunity for citizens and peasants to meet regularly on a friendly basis. Reminiscent of the era when Berne's prestige depended much on the aristocracy who lived within its walls, such as the Von Erlach, Von Diesbach, Von Frischling and Von Wattenwyl families, is the Junkerngasse, street of the patricians, whose old-fashioned yet distinguished residences command in front a far-sweeping view of the winding Aare and the regal Alps.

At the entrance to the thoroughfare rises the noble Gothic cathedral of St. Vincent, and in its very shadow, on Tuesdays and Fridays, convenes the poultry market. Shrieking protests and cries are heard quite often while this mart is in session, and they emanate from an object of horror—a small-sized but efficiently functioning guillotine, with an executioner in crimson cap in attendance. Here chickens have to give up their lives for Bernese dinners.

Hot Water Eye Doctor

Hot water is one of the best eye doctors. Often simple inflammations may be stopped by its use. The danger, of course, lies in diagnosis. The inflammation may be complex, not simple. If hot applications do not give ease and relief shortly, take the eyes to the doctor. Water for this usage should be only hot enough to help, not hot enough to burn. The application is to be made to the tightly closed—and kept tightly closed—eye. Under no circumstances keep the eyes open while bathing them. The idea is to increase the circulation in the lids, and by that means help the rest of the eye if it needs help. This is perhaps unscientific, but extremely practical. Often it works—and that is what the person involved wants.

Early Motor Cycle

The earliest known attempt at a two-wheeled vehicle which would proceed under its own power is said to have been made by W. W. Austin of Winthrop, Mass., in 1808. It was propelled by a coal-burning steam engine. Other more or less similar affairs followed in 1804 and 1806. In 1895 a cycle propelled by a combustion engine using gasoline was exhibited at Madison Square Garden in New York city. This has been called the first appearance of the motor cycle.

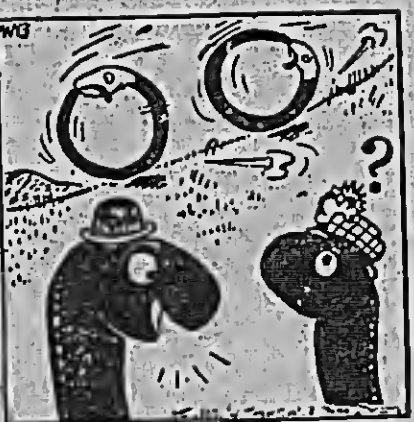

Life of Toads, Frogs

Toads and frogs may live for a number of years if they manage to escape their natural enemies and remain in a suitable environment. There is a well authenticated case of a toad which lived for 36 years and was accidentally killed. The common frog sometimes requires from four to five years to mature in the North and barring accidents which are usual in a natural state would probably live at least ten or 12 years.

Richards Offers One Good Thing After Another to Farmers

C. F. Richards, International Harvester Co. dealer in Antioch, is stimulating summer business with an exceptional offer. Purchasers of McCormick-Deering Farmall 20 Tractors during the month of August and the early part of September will acquire some valuable article free of cost. It may be a plow, a cultivator or a disc harrow, and any one of them would strike joy to any farmer's heart. The offer expires September 15, and those who are interested in new farm equipment should not overlook the opportunity while it is good.

GOLDEN TEXT—Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.—Proverbs 20:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What a Wise Man Said.

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Wise Man's Way.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How the Use of Liquor Affects Character.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How the Use of Liquor Affects Character.

Childhood remembrances are commonly sweet and precious—but some of them are vivid on the pages of memory because they relate to dangerous and distressing things. Among the things decent people avoided like the pestilence when the writer was a boy was the saloon. To be seen entering such places was to mark one's character, and to be a frequenter of them was to be lost to all that was good and holy.

High sounding and very pious were the assurances that when prohibition was repealed we would never see the return of the saloon, but we have them in multiplied number, and with a shameless appeal to women as well as men, to our growing girls and boys as well as to adults. Clever advertising has sought to make it "smart" to drink, and "manly" to be able to "carry" liquor. It is for that reason that it is of the utmost importance that we develop strong and intelligent character in our boys and girls—so that they may not only appraise the vicious "booze business" for what it really is, but also have the strength of character to fight it, not only for themselves, but for their weaker brother. They should know and proclaim that the saloon, whether it be called an "inn" or a "tavern," is always a "bar"—"A bar to Heaven, a door to Hell; Whoever named it named it well."

I. Developing Strength of Character (Prov. 4:10-23).

Solomon, the writer of many of the Proverbs, constantly stressed the importance of gaining wisdom. A man may be a perfect encyclopedia of information and yet may lack the wisdom to apply that knowledge to life. Dr. Hight C. Moore, in Points for Emphasis, provides a most helpful outline of this portion of Proverbs 4, which will assist the reader and teacher. He suggests that we must (1) "accept the challenge of a worthy goal, v. 10," by listening as a son to a father to the words which shall give us a long and happy life. Then we must (2) "follow the way of wisdom, vv. 11-13." It is a way that has been tested by those who have preceded us, and they have found it to be the right way. This will enable us to (3) "avoid the way of the wicked, vv. 14-17." Note the dreadful picture of those who not only do wickedness but delight in leading others into their evil paths, in fact they cannot sleep unless they have misled some poor soul. Shun that path, and (4) "irradiate the path to the larger life, vv. 18, 19." The way to life is a light path "that shineth more and more." The way of the wicked is stumbling and darkness. The devil and his followers are trying to make young people believe just the opposite. Let us teach them the truth that they may (5) "heed every syllable of all the words of God, vv. 20-23." Give attention to God's Word, listen to it, read it, keep it hidden in your heart. The heart in Scripture stands for the very center of man's spiritual being, out of which are all the issues of life. Evil thoughts, unholy desires and ambitions hidden there will ultimately be revealed in overt acts of ungodliness. Even so the Word of God hidden there will bring forth life in all its abundant beauty and strength.

The young man or woman who is thus taught God's Word in the home and the church will have an impregnable defense against the wiles and temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil.

II. Exhibiting Strength of Character (I Thess. 5:6-8).

The Lord is coming again! Paul was constantly looking forward to the day of His coming. It was not his lot to live until the Lord came, but he was not mistaken in looking for Him. The Lord has tarried, why only He knows, but it is the judgment of many excellent Bible expositors that the next great event to take place in divine history is His return. What a glorious hope!

But while we await His coming we are not to sleep as those round about us. Watchfulness, sobriety of life, these become the Christian. Certainly nothing of the drunkenness of our day is to enter into the life of the Christian. He who belongs to Christ does not drink of the devil's "fire-water." But far more than that is in mind here, for the Christian is to go on in faith, love, and hope until he becomes "on fire" for God, burning with the passion of the Holy Spirit, not only for his own life, but for the salvation of the lost and for the development of true Christian character in those who have taken upon themselves the beautiful name of "Christian."

ALLOW FRESH AIR, SUN, FOR CHICKS

Range Outside Advised for the Young Birds.

By Roy S. Dearborne, Head of Poultry Department, North Carolina State College, WNU Service.

The chicken is primarily an out-of-door bird, not a "hot house plant."

Yet in bad weather, birds need some protection against cold, rain, and drafts. Many poultrymen have a tendency to confine their birds more than necessary.

On warm, sunshiny days give the birds, especially the young chicks, a chance to range outside. Exercise in the sunshine will help develop vigorous birds.

But the ranges should be clean. It is better to keep chicks inside a clean house than to turn them out on a dirty range.

Poultrymen who buy their chicks will find it pays in the long run to buy only good quality chicks from reliable sources. State blood-tested chicks from the near vicinity are usually best.

Don't overcrowd chicks or growing birds. Give them plenty of fresh air without exposing them to drafts. But don't overheat them, either, for this will lower their vitality.

It is also a good idea to watch laying birds carefully. In the season of heavy laying they are sensitive to changes in feed and management.

To prolong production in the spring, start feeding a wet mash at the first sign of a slump. Give the mash early in the afternoon, placing it in troughs in such quantities as the birds will readily clean up in 20 to 30 minutes.

Bees Find Nectar Supply Varies as to Localities

Local conditions, soils, and climate seem to influence the nectar supply of plants from which bees gather their raw material. Science has not solved nearly all the problems raised by the bees in their search for honey material. W. J. Nolan, bee specialist in the United States Department of Agriculture, notes that alfalfa is a good nectar producer in the area west of the Mississippi river, but is of slight importance to the east. Buckwheat honey is well known for its dark color and characteristic flavor but nearly all of it comes from a relatively small area near Lakes Erie and Ontario; elsewhere in this country buckwheat is a honey plant of only slight importance. White clover is widely grown and is a first-class honey source, but in certain localities it gives the honey bee little or no nectar.

Protecting the Waterfowl

Grazing by cattle and other domestic animals destroys waterfowl food and cover and frequently causes the loss of eggs due to trampling. On areas frequented by large numbers of waterfowl, grazing should be confined by fencing to protect the best nesting cover, says Successful Farming. Small grains like barley, oats, or wheat should be broadcast on waste lands where practical. Such grains, relished by game birds, augment available food supplies and tend to hold game on the farm.

In the Farm Lot

A 10 by 12 foot brooder house will provide ample accommodation for 100 or even 200 day-old chicks.

In recent years many poultrymen have found that local markets are best for both live and dressed poultry.

Unless cows have an abundance of pure water to which they can go at any time, milk flow will be affected.

Jumbo eggs must weigh at least 26 ounces per dozen. They are worth more than other eggs because of their size.

In the United States, the cotton-picking season averages 100 days and is the most costly operation in the industry.

Ten hens entered in a New York egg laying contest recently established an average production record of 308 eggs per bird in 51 weeks.

Mouse girdled apple trees may be restored by bridge grafting, in which young active scions bridge the gap across the ruined bark of the tree.

Most of the market ducks in the United States are of the White Pekin variety.

Well cured green alfalfa and clover hay make very good sources of green feed for poultry.

In 1937 the Department of Agriculture reported 3,030,000 sheep on farms in the state of Montana.

American agriculture is now said to use more machinery than any other one industry in this country.

Veloz and Yolanda Respond to the Requests of Admirers

Because of the increasingly numerous and varied demands for certain of their dance routines, Veloz and Yolanda, the stars of the floor show currently on view at the Palmer House Empire Room, Chicago, put into effect on Sunday, August 7, what is known as a "request" program.

Altogether, these incomparable dancers have a working routine of eighteen dances—each one with its own particular group of admirers. For instance, "Whispering"—that lovely and beautiful dance interpretation which Veloz and Yolanda introduced to Chicagoans during their first Empire room appearance (May 1933)—has been requested by a great many people. The "Veolanda"—one of the more recent creations—is also very popular. And so on, through the entire list of routines.

In order that as many of their fans and friends as possible may be pleased, Veloz and Yolanda decided to give them an opportunity to vote for their favorite dances—numbers that they are specially anxious to see them perform in the Empire Room. Cards, listing the full repertoire of Veloz and Yolanda, are on the tables of the Victorian Room and Le Petit Cafe in addition to the Empire Room, and the three most popular routines will be included in their regular nightly programs.

Miss Bell Hughes was hostess to a number of friends at a picnic dinner at Bluff Lake, Sunday.

Brahmas Majestic Birds; Hardy, Vigorous Layers

The Brahma has a comb different from most birds. This is called a pea comb and is rather a low comb consisting of three ridges instead of a rose comb or a single comb. Brahmas are very large, their weights being: Cock, 12 pounds; hen, 9½ pounds; cockerels, 10 pounds; pullets, 8 pounds.

They are truly majestic birds, says a writer in the Philadelphia Record. The head of the Brahma is very characteristic, being broad, with heavy brows giving the bird a look of great intelligence.

As a table fowl it is unexcelled in the very heavy class, and it is used pure and with crosses very extensively. In New England the bird had an extremely wide popularity, especially in the hands of specialists in Rhode Island, who turned out what was called the New England soft roaster.

Brahmas are hardy, vigorous and excellent layers of very large dark brown eggs. The fact that they have been bred by many of our very best breeders is evidence of their real worth.

The Brahma comes in a color other than light. Then it is called the Dark Brahma. The males having a black body, black wing bar and white saddle and hackle laced with black. The female is steel gray, with each feather penciled with black.

Cannibalism among chicks is largely caused by lack of something to do, by over-crowded houses, or by hunger.

It is estimated that China's 350,000,000 hens lay 26,250,000,000 eggs annually.

A cow that weighs 1,200 pounds and produces 40 pounds of milk daily requires about two ounces of salt each day.

Green feeds are an important source of necessary vitamins.

The Department of Agriculture plans to divert surplus hops into fertilizer and mulch.

Hens that fail to respond to good feeding and management during the summer should be disposed of promptly.

On January 1, 1938, the number of horses on farms was estimated at 11,165,000 and the number of mules at 4,477,000.

Only 47 per cent of the fluid milk produced in this country is pasteurized. In 1936, 42 epidemics causing 28 deaths were traced to unpasteurized milk.
